

This form can be filled in electronically.

CLS Health and Safety Program

Pandemic Education & Training True/False Test

Name _____
Please print.

Location _____

Date Completed _____

- | | | |
|--|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1. To practice proper hand hygiene, you should always use antibacterial soap. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Hand sanitizers are not effective in removing dirt from your hands. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Wearing a surgical mask whenever you are out in public will prevent you from contracting the H1N1 virus. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. Cough/sneeze etiquette refers to turning your head away from others whenever you cough or sneeze. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. ILI refers to the symptoms of influenza-like illness. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6. In order to kill the H1N1 virus on surfaces, you need to use a special type of disinfectant. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 7. PPE refers to, among other things, screening visitors with flu symptoms and not allowing them to visit a location. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8. The H1N1 influenza virus is also known as the human swine flu. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 9. If you have a runny nose and a cough, you probably have ILI. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 10. If you have influenza-like illness, you should immediately go to a clinic or the emergency room. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 11. Alcohol based rubs (hand sanitizers) are unsafe for children to use unsupervised. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 12. When washing your hands, it is important to fill a sink with water, then wash and rinse your hands in the filled sink. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 13. When washing your hands, you should wash them for 20 seconds and rinse them for 10 seconds. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 14. You should use hand sanitizers with water to achieve the best results. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 15. After using a hand sanitizer, you should allow your hands to air-dry. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 16. Controls that could be put into place to avoid transmission of influenza virus can include training in hand hygiene, screening for ILI, and home isolation. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 17. Viruses can live on surfaces for up to 1 hour and on your hands for 2 hours. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 18. If you have questions about the H1N1 influenza virus, you should call BC Healthlink at 811 or your healthcare provider. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 19. Employers can require employees to wear Respirators such as the N95 Respirator without being properly "fit-tested". | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 20. It is mandatory and CLS policy, that, as a CLS employee, you are required to get the flu shot. . | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 21. The regular flu shot will not protect you from the H1N1 virus. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 22. CLS may decide not to develop and communicate an exposure control plan for its employees, depending on how severe the H1N1 pandemic becomes. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 23. PPE refers to goggles, gowns and gloves, among other items. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 24. As a CLS employee, you are required to supply your own PPE at all times. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 25. Home isolation refers to staying at home and not going out into the community if you have influenza-like illness. | True <input type="checkbox"/> | False <input type="checkbox"/> |

To save this form filled in, click the SAVE button and choose CutePDFwriter.