

CLS Board Governance

The CLS Board of Directors is made up of a dedicated group of volunteers that includes family members, and members of the community, all of whom bring their professional and personal talents to benefit the Society.

This section outlines their leadership role in guiding our mission, vision, beliefs and values. It explains their role in the organization and the expectations set up in our code of conduct.