

CLS & Social Responsibility

We believe we have an important role to play in being conscious of how we can positively influence our environment and in making every effort to be as socially responsible as we can. In addition, we are well placed to encourage our partners in business to become disability confident. This section of our Handbook will expand over time as we develop policies that will position CLS as a leader in social awareness and concern for our planet.